APRIL 14, A. L. 5798. A. D. 1798.

By order of the Most Worshipful Grand Master, a special Grand Lodge was called at the University of North-Carolina, for the express purpose of laying the foundation and corner stone of the principal college of that Seminary; and to join the Brothers of the University in one ejaculation to Heaven and the Great Architect of the Universe, for the auspices of his eternal goodness and wisdom, for the prosperity of learning, wisdom and virtuous education—when were present:

The Most Worshipful the Honorable WILLIAM B. DAVIS,
 Grand Master.

The Brothers, Officers and Members of several the Right Worshipful Lodges in this State under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge, called here by order and summons of the Most Worshipful Grand Master for the purpose aforesaid,

The

The Lodge was opened in due form.

On motion, and seconded, Resolved, That this Grand Lodge proceed in the ancient and strict form of Malony, under the direction of the Most Worshipful Grand Master, to the place appointed, to form a general procession with the Trustees, Faculty and Students of the University.—His Excellency the Governor of the State of North Carolina, and the Honourable the Council of State, the Honourable the Judges of the Supreme Courts of Law and Equity, the Gentlemen of the Bar from the Superior Court of Hillsborough, the Rev. Mr. Bingham, A. M. and President of the Academy in Chatham county, and the Students of that seminary, with many gentlemen of respectability from different parts of North Carolina, attending here for this express purpose.

The procession was then formed by all the Brothers aforesaid, clothed in masonic order, and in solemn form proceeded to the place appointed; where a general procession was again formed, in company with the Craft, by all the above mentioned gentlemen, under the direction and superintendence of the Most Worshipful WILLIAM R. DAVIS, Grand Master, and Major-General of the militia in this State, in the following order:

Architects,
 * Mechanics and Peasants,
 Grand Master,
 Teacher and Students of Chatham Academy,
 Students of the University,
 The Faculty of the University,
 The Gentlemen of the Bar,
 The Honourable the Judges,
 The Honourable the Council of State,
 His Excellency the Governor,
 The Trustees of the University,
 The Masonic Craft, with
 The Grand Master.

In which form the grand procession was conducted in a Malonic manner by the direction of the Craft. It consisted of several hundred persons. It began at the old college, and was made to the great road leading up the country by Nunn's tavern, thence up the said road near to Nunn's tavern, tavern, and thence to the place appointed for the erection of the new and main college, where the order was reversed, accompanied with music suitable to the occasion.—Those gentlemen who made the procession, and were not of the Craft, formed themselves and stood around the place on which the building is to stand; when the fraternity, led by the most Worshipful Grand Master, continued their procession around the building three times, in a solemn manner; when they came to the southeast corner of the college, the Grand Master alone, attended by the chief officers and Craft, proceeded in the antient form of Masonry to lay in a masonic order the CORNER STONE—which was accordingly done.—After this, prayers by the Rev. Mr. Caldwell, A. M. and one of the faculty of the University, and a numerous audience of gentlemen and ladies, were offered up to Heaven, the throne of Grace and Omniscience, imploring the benediction and superintendence of the God of knowledge and virtue to that foundation of future literature.—The procession was then again formed by order of the Grand Master, to the chapel; where a handsome and well composed eulogy was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Caldwell, and many pieces of vocal and instrumental music were performed as Hallelujahs, by persons appointed for that purpose.

The procession of the Craft was then conducted by the Grand Master to the lodge room, and after the business of the lodge was finished, it was adjourned in due form.
